The RAF Way

- We build lifelong relationships
- We are prepared, persistent, patient, and polite
- We have a bias toward action
- We are humble, honest, and direct
- We do more with less
- We say thank you
- We over communicate
- We work well with others
- We stay in our lane
- We listen
- We are family
- We measure ourselves by airfield saves and smiles

Moose Creek, ID

An aerial photograph showing a lush green landscape. A large, irregularly shaped clearing of grassy land is the central focus, with several dirt roads or paths crisscrossing it. This clearing is surrounded by dense, dark green coniferous forests. In the bottom left corner, a river flows through the forest. The top left corner shows the white wing of an aircraft, indicating the photo was taken from an airplane. The overall scene is a mix of open grassland and dense forest.
